So where do we find these little hidden gems? Home & Bungalow in the back yard with easy access. Mature gardens help create your own privacy. Walking distance to the main street which means no matter who owns or rents this is a major attraction & feature to this home. Nice open yard which with a few smarts can be created even more private to create greater potential for increased rental income. Home but tidy and central location with unlimited potential for further development or rental increase over time. Basic but with position and a very saleable reserve price. Act NOW. Call Today to arrange a viewing. Tracey Smith 0438 078 852.
