Featuring an inherently 'local' character, Kingsford's design will cleverly complement the undulating terrain, panoramic views, waterways and bushland of its surrounding landscape. With open spaces, walkability and a pedestrian friendly design, it has been created as a destination in its own right. Activated streets and public spaces will offer ongoing interest and excitement, whilst an all-new District Centre will be provide a nucleus of activity for residents and visitors alike. With an uninterrupted network of pathways connecting neighbourhoods with outdoor experiences, residents of Kingsford will be able to enjoy their community all year round.
