Perfect for the work-from-home professional, the four-bedroom Bellevue 260 double-storey home design combines the very best of the work/life balance. The lower level will be heralded the entertainers' dream - an expansive open-plan kitchen enjoys an adjoining Butler's Pantry for food storage and preparation. An adjacent well-appointed laundry provides external access to the backyard. The ultimate connection space - the kitchen joins a family and meals zone with an optional alfresco meeting the needs of the modern entertainer. A roomy home office and powder room provides an ideal working-from-home environment, with a private home theatre room completing the lower level. Luxurious living comes alive on the upper level with architectural void allowing abundant natural light to flow through - attributed to a dramatic void creating a sense of openness and grandeur. The lavish master suite adorned with an ensuite, two walk-in robes, and private covered deck. Two of the remaining three main bedrooms feature a walk-in robe, with all enjoying convenient access to the main bathroom, study zone, and rumpus room.
