The village is set amongst expansive gardens and boasts a fresh and contemporary look with a beautifully refurbished community centre. The community centre at Murray Gardens Retirement Village is a stylish and elegant social hub. Inside, the restaurant serves delicious meals for care apartment residents, and others who pre-book, and the bar provides a delightful space for evening drinks. Many residents also meet in the community centre to take part in bingo, tai chi, card games, line dancing, mah jong and canasta and enjoy using the billiards room, library, hairdresser and auditorium. Murray Gardens also has award winning gardens, perfect for walking the dog, and secure storage for caravans and boats.
