Type: Land

Country living without the hassle.

Presenting a prime piece of land offering all the convenience, quietness, and greenery you would expect from country living. Set amongst multiple large farms, this is a manageable 8.8 acres (approx.) that will feel like you are living on a 100+ with undulating hills as far as the eye can see. Currently, this is the only small acreage on the market in Newfield's and it will not be available for long.

With only a short 8-minute drive you can be in the heart of Timboon. A country town with a lot of history and character and having the day-to-day necessities you need. There is no shortage of attractions with Port Campbell and the Great Ocean Road also being an 8-minute drive away offering up the London Bridge, 12 Apostles, Loch Ard Gorge, Bay of Islands, and several world class surf beaches.
