Grab this blank canvass and realise your dream!

Here presents a rare opportunity to secure one of only a handful of vacant allotments in Carrickalinga.

This generously sized allotment of 754m² is being offered for sale by the vendors for a new owner to realise the full potential this allotment has to offer. This property has been in the same family for over 40 years, with no encumbrances or time frames to build you can really let your imagination run wild and build that dream beachside getaway. You can enjoy the beachside setting and let your imagination run wild. You are literally a 5 minute stroll to the pristine white sandy beach where you can enjoy all manner of activities with the family.

These types of offerings are becoming fewer and fewer within the seaside Carrickalinga township so you will want to jump straight onto this one and not let it slip away.

An easy 5 minute drive to Normanville town centre, hotel, restaurants, eateries, the brand new Surf Club and all other township facilities.

Expressions of interest closing 11/10/24 at 2pm unless sold prior.
