Choices Galore on this Large Block

This 1830sqm block is zoned R30 and situated a short distance from the thriving town Centre of Dongara. This zoning allows for the development of the land to build units, so perfect for an investor or someone wanting to build their dream home with plenty of room. With only a short walk to the ocean and the Irwin River, this property has everything new or established residents of Dongara looking for a relaxing lifestyle could possibly want.

This is exceptional value at this price, with several options to develop and take advantage of the anticipated future growth of the Midwest.
