Homesite 111 - freshly picked, your new space.

Looking for connection and convenience? Homesite 111 forms part of the Market Collection – a new highly anticipated release of homesites in Middleton Field located off attractive Raglan Street at the eastern entry to Daylesford.

At 741sqm, Homesite 111 provides ample space to design your new home and garden – with the Middleton Field Design Guidelines providing clear goals around sustainable home design, consistent contemporary character and generous landscaping to complement the wider Daylesford area.

With additional privacy, Homesite 111 is also uniquely located beside an open space corridor and walkway featuring biodiverse planting designed by leading landscape architect Acre.

For those seeking the ideal location in Daylesford, all homesites in the Market Collection are within easy walking distance to the township activity along Raglan Street (less than 5 minutes) including Daylesford's Sunday Market, popular pubs, cafes and restaurants.

The Sunday market is the place to go for those looking for fresh produce or unique artisanal goods. Rain, hail, snow, or shine – the market is held every week and has become an institution for the local community and the broader Daylesford region.
