River Fun for Everyone

Set a matter of metres away from the mighty Murray River, this allotment is perfectly positioned for quick weekends away and summer fun with those you love the most.

Build out your dream River getaway or simply invest in a block and camp for years to come, this allotment offers options aplenty for those seeking to secure a vacant allotment in this excellent holiday location.

Whether you choose a tree change and live here or simply use this as your weekender, this block offers size to supply you with a good time for many years to come.

This gated community has proven popular over the years and has proven resilient after the floods with life by the river once again returning to normal.

Is it time to secure your own slice of paradise?

With easy access back to Blanchetown with all of the conveniences the town has to offer, this property is that perfect balance between proximity to the water, in an easy drive from the suburbs that is just minutes away from whatever you may need once you are up there.
