Type: Land

5.9 Acres of Weary Bay Beach Delight

Weary Bay is an open, east facing, 9 km long bay at the mouth of the Bloomfield River. Most of the bay shoreline is occupied by 8.5 km long Weary Bay Beach, which extends south from Rattlesnake Point to the mouth of the Bloomfield River and road access to the southern end of the beach. Lot 29 Weary Bay consists of 5.9 acres of rainforest fertile soil and is just far enough away to be protected by the easterly winds yet close enough to walk the dogs to the beach. There is sealed road access to the property from Cooktown, town power runs by and you are just 2km from the small settlement of Ayton. Ayton is a good spot to revive your spirits. Strategically placed on the Cooktown to Cape Tribulation Road, known as The Bloomfield Track, there's a store, cafe, takeaway, campground and accommodation.

By Lot 29 Weary Bay to land bank, build your retire home near the beach or new homes along the esplanade are being used for short term stay are some of the possibilities for this special bit of land.
