Land - The Ultimate Natural Asset

The pure potential and sense of possibility that only vacant land can provide are beautifully illustrated by this exceptional block, zoned General Residential, measuring some 768m².

Family friendly surroundings defined by new builds, appealing streetscapes and a shared community appreciation of the area's ability to deliver a desirable, coastal orientated lifestyle complement the opportunity to capture this rewarding allotment.

Options to design a home tailored to respond to all the aspects you require and desire from a family address are complemented by this site's gently sloping dimensions and easy access to the dual highway that puts both Devonport and Ulverstone just a quick, convenient commute away.

The chance to apply beauty to a blank canvas in such an attractive setting is an opening not to be missed - it's not only land, it's landmark appeal!
