Type: Land

VERSATILE LAND FOR OUTDOOR ENTHUSIASTS

Nestled in the scenic tranquillity of Glenreagh, the land at 49 George Street presents a unique and versatile opportunity for enthusiasts of rural life and outdoor activities. This expansive 5.7-acre block, zoned for rural use, offers a blend of partially bush-covered terrain and cleared areas, ideal for a variety of uses including equestrian pursuits, cattle grazing, or even creating your own private motorbike track.

Situated equidistant from both Grafton and Coffs Harbour, approximately 30 minutes away, this property allows for convenient access to urban amenities while retaining a sense of seclusion and privacy. There are no visible neighbours, ensuring that your activities and leisure can unfold in a personal and uninterrupted setting.

Although this parcel does not come with building entitlements, it is perfectly suited for placing sheds, engaging in camping adventures, or simply enjoying as a private escape into nature. The local area of Glenreagh adds to the charm of this property, with its welcoming community amenities including a bakery, pub, and general store, providing all the essentials within a close-knit village atmosphere.

This land offers not just a piece of property, but a canvas on which to paint your ideal lifestyle in the great outdoors. Whether you're looking to nurture livestock, enjoy recreational activities, or simply seek a peaceful retreat surrounded by nature, 49 George Street in Glenreagh stands ready to fulfill those dreams.
