This vacant 665m² parcel of land is the perfect blank canvas to build if you're in the market for a privately positioned, compact and low maintenance inner city lifestyle close to shops, schools, the hospital, CBD and services.

This flat land site is situated in the quiet one-way street of Milne Lane and tucked away privately at the rear via an extended concrete driveway shared with just one other neighbour. The land is currently setup by its owner featuring an extensive edible garden with a range of fruits and vegetables, you may wish to consider buying to secure and hold for future plans (while continuing to enjoy the food from the gardens), or if you're ready to build now this block is too, enabling you to start planning out your exciting new home build straight away!
