Stuart Park is the first residential suburb over from Darwin CBD to the North and sits between both major thoroughfares, Tiger Brennan Drive and the Stuart Highway, making it an easily accessible suburb.

Ruddick Circuit itself is a quiet street with only local traffic as there are no side streets connecting to other roads. It's only a hop skip and a jump into the city via the excellent paths along the main roads, and it's just as easy to get to the Dinah Beach eateries, the Darwin Waterfront or Stokes Hill Wharf. There are several primary and secondary schools in close proximity, and a short drive will get you to the Botanical Gardens, the Mindil Beach Casino and Mindil Beach Sunset Markets. It is the ideal suburb for tropical living!
