Love The Bush, but Can't Leave the City?

Have you discovered Wendoree Park yet? This tranquil riverside locale is less than 35 minutes drive up the M1 from Wahroonga and sits by the Hawkesbury River at the bottom of Mt. White. Forget getting caught up with Central Coast commuting when you can halve the trip and keep your fuel costs down too. If you're into nature, fishing, bushwalking, cycling etc then this affordable building block could be just what you've been looking for.

This stunning elevated block is approx. 830 square metres, and offers serenity and filtered water views. Wendoree is a friendly little community featuring a public wharf, fire brigade, children's playground and some great local get togethers.
