Stunning views

Nested in the beautiful valley of Wee Jasper, this spectacular property has it all. From cast limestone formations to rolling green hills, the landscape and breath-taking views of the Brindabellas will have you in awe.

Whether you're looking to build your forever home or just a retreat from the hustle and bustle, here you will find all you need and more.

As you walk around the property, take a step back in time to observe the beginnings of life as we know it, with fossils dating back over four hundred million years. Caves with hot springs are also some of the wonderful features of the property.

There are endless adventures to be had on this block and the property backs onto thousands of hectares of bush land for you to enjoy any of your outdoor interests.

If you enjoy nature, you will appreciate the flora and fauna, with native birds and wildlife, trees over six hundred years old, and the largest grouping of Wee Jasper Grevilia in existence. The biodiversity of this property is truly amazing.

The Goodradigbee is one of the last pristine rivers in NSW and is renowned for its freshwater fishing. With river frontage and a boat ramp just minutes away in Wee Jasper, you can enjoy your own private space on the river or venture downstream to explore Lake Burrinjuck.

Create your own hobby farm, or just enjoy the serenity. This block has all the features that people love about this area.
