Forest Retreat in Tasmania' North East

12.27ha (Approx. 30 acres) of bushland in the renowned dairy farming area of Pyengana. Ideal location for a tree change getaway. The block faces North to North East allowing for a sunny building site (STCA) with its forest and pastured land views. Pyengana is located a little under 30minutes drive to Tasmania's largest East Coast township of St Helens. The area is popular with tourists offering St Columba Falls, Halls Falls and the Anchor Mine site. Two popular eating places add to the charm of the district being The Pub in the Paddock and the Pyengana Farm Gate Café. The area is well known for its scenic beauty and early history. Of recent years mountain bike trails have become popular with one of the most interesting ones being the Blue Tier to the Bay of Fires.
