A LOT TO OFFER!

Ideally positioned on a tree-lined street close to great lifestyle amenities, this prime parcel of vacant land is the ideal foundation for your home or investment.

Tucked away privately off the street, with a desirable north-west-facing rear orientation and perfectly rectangular shape, this generous 514m² survey strata block has design flexibility and space for a single-level or two-storey residence to accommodate every situation and budget.

The only way to have everything you want in a home is to design and build for yourself, and there's no better place to do it than right here.
