Welcome to "Fermanagh Cottage" This country home will steal your heart in an instant! Feel your worries slip away as you travel through the picturesque farmlands along the short journey up Saddleback. The scenery is soothing, and as you traverse this stunning landscape you leave behind the happenings of your day. Driving through the gates of this country home prepare to be transported to a place in time where things were slower and simple. As you drive along the hedge lined driveway brace yourself to step back in time! Nestled in the stunning backdrop of saddleback mountain. North facing it is an area of natural beauty as diverse as it is breathtaking. Discover the charm of this Circa 1850's original Settlers Cottage that must be seen to be believed and be experienced to be felt and understood. "Fermanagh Cottage" is the very essence of country living and the epitome of getting away from it all. Set on just under 2 acres of historically significant land that once accommodated the early pioneers of Kiama - those who had originally called the county of Fermanagh in Ireland home - settling here and now over 170 years later allowing us to relish in the fruits of their labor. Rich in history this gem is as rare as they come. A unique offering in all aspects. Under the canopy of the majestic fig tree this most enchanting two bedroom cottage offers bespoke warmth with features that will delight. High ceilings, polished timber floorboards, combustion fireplace, French doors, cedar paneled walls, leadlight windows, exposed stone walls, and a view from every window. Complete with wrap around verandahs.....offering the perfect location on which to indulge the stunning views. Enjoy your morning cuppa watching the sunrise play out over the Pacific or perhaps an evening refreshment admiring the twinkling lights spanning to Wollongong and beyond. The lifestyle on offer here is one of tranquility and peace. Although you feel a world away from it all, the villages of Kiama and Gerringong lie just below the mountain, with cafes, boutique shopping, schools and train station, offering all the conveniences. A laid back atmosphere and just five minutes drive to some of the most beautiful beaches the south coast has to offer, enjoying crystal clear water and great surf breaks all year round. Where the rolling countryside meets the sea and all less than two hours drive from Sydney. Perhaps a country retreat or the perfect chance for a sea-tree change. A unique opportunity in an exceptional locale.
