Situated on just over 48 acres, this rural lifestyle property offers a perfect blend for those seeking a peaceful escape. The property features a well positioned 3-bedroom, 1-bathroom steel-framed home, complemented by verandas on two sides. Internally the living areas have been freshly painted as well as new lights and fans throughout. The spacious bathroom is tiled with walk in shower recess & modern vanity. Just a short stroll from the home you are welcomed with Wild River frontage, great for swimming, fishing and kayaking and it's right at your doorstep. You will observe the established yard and gardens surrounding the home offer an array of fruit trees and shaded areas & there is a near new green house. This property is designed to provide a self-sustaining, comfortable lifestyle. Externally to the home is a 2-bay shed with lean too plus an additional 40ft shipping container for extra storage. Power is available to the shed. Chooks have not been forgotten with a well-constructed chook pen. Water to the property is available via rainwater as well as electric bore supply. Grant Rd is conveniently located approx. 15 minutes west of Ravenshoe ensuring easy access to shops, schools and other amenities and offers school bus pick up from the Wild River Rd intersection. With the addition of a new kitchen and some finishing touches this home will be complete.
