Looking for a piece of wilderness to escape to? This stunning, untouched property offers nearly 150 acres of pristine country to lose yourself in. Situated at the end of a no-through road, this haven is bordered by a National Park on one side and a State Forest on the other, making it a paradise for hunters and those seeking seclusion, bushwalking or just a weekend escape. Red deer and other abundant wildlife thrive in this natural bushland habitat with the bonus of a seasonal creek running through the property. Despite its serene seclusion, this gem is conveniently located just 5 minutes from Helidon's shops, post office, and pub, and only 20 minutes from Toowoomba.. This could be your own slice of nature's beauty. Don't miss out on this rare opportunity to own a piece of untouched wilderness so close to civilization. Price $439,000 offers over.
