Expressions of Interest

A four bedroom home set amongst the peaceful rural farming area of Hartley. With an ensuite bathroom, good sized living areas and bright open plan kitchen. The property includes a large shed and workshop with solar power, and diesel generator back up to live off the grid. There are scattered gums, quality fencing and indirect mains water supply. With quality cattle yards and troughs this property suits cattle or sheep with some cropping if desired. The large rural holding has good pasture coverage, scattered gums plus newly planted and vigorously growing trees. Excellent views to Mount Barker and also to Lake Alexandrina. Inspection by appointment.
