These fabulous properties cannot fail to impress the most discerning buyers. With massive kerb appeal and stunning designer interiors you will be absolutely wowed! Take your pick from one of these 3 high spec property's, each one offering its own individuality appealing to all tastes. The two storey delights are an imposing presence on the street and will certainly turn heads. They preside on an elevated block which is fully landscaped and the huge verandah with cedar lined ceiling to the front elevation adding to the many designer features included as standard on these spectacular homes. Totally "on point" for today's market the homes offer an abundance of designer features whilst still retaining optimum functionality. The best of both worlds is a definite with these homes. On entering the property, the attention to detail, quality fixtures and fittings and sheer feel of expansiveness is immediately apparent. Oversized marble effect tiles adorn the floors in the heavy traffic areas and are contrasted with plush carpets to bedrooms to create a cosy feel underfoot. The undulation of the land has been cleverly utilised internally with different levels stepping up and down creating an interesting floor plan. Adding to the many designers features the two storey homes offer feature stairwell so besides the practicality they add to the style of the properties. Neutral colour palette throughout creates a cohesive flow and the downlights add to the ambience. The chef's kitchen includes stainless steel, European appliances, and abundance of maple effect cupboards, and stone benchtop. Lighting up the bench space is a feature light fighting which perfectly complements the cabinetry and accentuates the stonework to benchtop. The luxurious bathroom offers 5-star luxury with double vanity to stone bench top and a cleverly designed bath and shower area and floor to ceiling tiles add to the style. There is also a powder room, perfect for when friend or relatives visit. The ensuite enjoys the same level of high-level quality and Mum and Dad have the perfect retreat with their master suite. There is fully ducted reverse cycle air conditioning throughout offering the perfect temperature for all seasons. The upper level has atrium with bedrooms leading off and a fantastic feature are the verandas leading off from here. Al fresco is situated under main roof and there are no onerous maintenance chores to attend to as the property have been designed with easy care in mind. A property like this needs to be fully enjoyed so all you need to do is sit back and appreciate all on offer here. Completing this impressive package is double remote-controlled garage and lovely landscaped surrounding garden areas.
