Pretty much a minute along Glen Huon Road in Huonville is this fully fenced slightly sloping pasture lot. Currently used for cutting hay and occasionally for homing a bull this amazing 2 ½ acres has wonderful rural views, sits next to a bus stop, has a new town water connection and has power running straight past it. Building your dream home on a cleared land lot which, apart from the grass and fencing, is a total blank canvas, with a new title soon to be issued now is the time to start the approval process for your brand new home. Don't go past this one a short trip to Huonville and all the service offered there this property is sure to gain some real interest. Call today for some more information. $395,000+
