Looking for an opportunity to secure your own land lot on the outskirts of Stawell township. This 104-acre parcel of land is designated under Rural Living Schedule 5 zoning, presenting an array of possibilities. Featuring two dams and direct access via Glenvale Road, it's the ideal setting for a hobby block. You have the flexibility to use it as a Rural Hobby Block for camping, farming, or potentially build your dream home (subject to council approval). The convenience of nearby power utilities further enhances the desirability of this location. What sets this property apart is its strategic location. Just 9 minutes from Stawell, 30 minutes from Halls Gap, and under an hour from Horsham, Lake Lonsdale is conveniently located nearby, providing opportunities for swimming and recreational activities. Whether you're looking for a serene investment, breathtaking mountain views, or the tranquillity of large gums, this rural property has it all. Don't hesitate; reach out to the listing agent, Hayley Cox at 0419 834 530, to secure your own piece of paradise today.
