Moments from all the modern must-haves, yet far enough away to retain a sense of sanctuary, Tillerman is the ideal balance of lifestyle and convenience. Inspired by early farmers and their dreams of cultivating a better life, Tillerman provides families with the ideal Park Ridge location to grow and flourish. A collection of well-considered land parcels surrounded by serene bushland, this boutique neighbourhood is now ripe and ready for first, second, and forever homebuyers looking for a full, active, and enriching way of living. Tillerman's tranquil location and thoughtful design ensures residents will enjoy all the refreshing qualities of a close-knit community. A feeling of shared ownership that will no doubt lead to many weekend strolls and sports games, impromptu bring-a-plate dinners, and 'Mum can I stay overs'. At Tillerman, every contemporary convenience is just down the road – not down the track. All the things that make life comfortable like shopping, dining, transport, education, healthcare and nearby highway access are only minutes away. In other words, you can look forward to a truly connected life. And when it comes to nature and open space, here's the kicker: a 1ha community park. This will join neighbouring Hubner Park in making sure families have the active ingredients for healthy lives and enough room for kids to build real, lasting social networks. Enquire Today.
