If you are looking for a picturesque location to build your dream home (STCA), this might just be the perfect opportunity for you. With 7 fully serviced blocks of land available, ranging from approx. 539m² to 792m² there are plenty of options. The blocks of land are located just a short drive from local shops, parks and other local amenities. Along with being so conveniently located the blocks are all zoned residential, which means you have the freedom to design and build the home of your dreams (STCA). The lots are near level and a few of them have an existing new fence line at their back boundary. With water and mountain views to admire these parcels of land are sure to be popular. Estimated availability of titles will be October 2023. For plans and more info please contact us today.
