Situated in the final stage at The Crest, this generous-sized allotment provides the perfect opportunity to build your dream home in one of Adelaide's most sought-after locations. The Crest at Woodside offers a picturesque residential lifestyle in a park-like setting, conveniently located between the ever-popular hills townships of Woodside and Nairne. The large central section of the Reserve boasts an internal walking trail, a central park or picnic area, an informal lookout and a nature playground area. The quiet rural township of Woodside lies to the east of Adelaide, roughly a 35-minute drive via the south-eastern freeway. Close to some of South Australia's best wineries & eateries, with plenty of amenities nearby, including a community swimming pool, library, retail shops and cafes.
