Behind the green fence is a level acreage property that opens out to northerly views up your very own tributary of Mellum Ck. Design your own home spilling out to the warm northern winter sun overlooking the Lillypads and your own private creek frontage. This land is flood free, not restricted by covenants and has town water, power, nbn and driveway built. Build your dream, your way on this generous, level, flood free acreage just minutes walk to electric train, shops and the amenities of Landsborough.
