For sale in Curdie Vale is this prime piece of farming land sitting in an idyllic location within the hinterland of the Great Ocean Road. Consisting of 30 acres (approx.) of cleared farming land with some pockets of established bush land, there are water troughs to each of the four paddocks, supplied by a windmill bore plus a stunning river backdrop provided by the Curdies River. The Boggy Creek Pub is only minutes away and the land is ideally located within close proximity to the Great Ocean Road coastline with the towns of Peterborough, Port Campbell and Warrnambool all within a short commute. Parcels of prime farming land in this highly sought after and beautiful location are in high demand so enquire today for further information.
