Offers over $440,000

Located in the picturesque tropical paradise of Brandy Creek, nestled amid lush forests, rolling pastures and neighbouring Conway national park, is this exceptional 2.5 acre vacant allotment. This enclave of peace and tranquility is just too good to be true and must be inspected to fully appreciate the special offerings that it will bring to your family's lifestyle and a new home investment. The property which is fenced on three sides, is well drained and slopes gently from front to back and has power connected conveniently to the house pad. It has access from Forestry Rd and the bottom of the block is adjacent to Brandy Creek Rd and the meandering Brandy Creek stream eco system. Outdoor adventures are well catered for with the Conway Range trail, which is just a few minutes' walk to the end of Forestry Road, where you can walk or ride and delve deep into the ancient expanse of nature's best. Pass through palm valleys, splash across creeks, travel between majestic rainforest giant flora and gaze over azure tropical waters. This special location will ensure that your lifestyle is protected and life's necessities and pleasures are only a short drive away. Council will approve a 2nd dwelling for the property subject to council conditions. This is a special opportunity to grasp one of Whitsundays' very limited true jewels.
