Drought proof your grazing enterprise with this 127.8 hectare (316 acre) Lower Macleay flood plain grazing block, complete with Kinchela Creek frontage and good access. Kikuyu frontage country running back to buffalo grass pastures and lower quill rod swamp areas, with a great haven for water birds breeding grounds including swans, ducks & jabiru. This block is close to Gladstone, South West Rocks and beaches and will run good numbers of cattle through dry times. An ideal complement to upriver or western grazing properties.
