A huge parcel not far from Port Lincoln or Coffin Bay covered with beautiful scrub and cleared areas. The property has a bore hole from previous use (may need attention), but a great option for water. With water views from multiple areas of the allotment all while keeping privacy to the max. Imagine the family with all this room to move, maybe a weekend allotment, maybe build your dream home and live off grid, possibilities are endless (STCC).Cleared areas mean you can use the allotment straight away and work on the rest over time.Outlines are approximate only.
