Nestled amongst established tall timber with beautiful long distant views over hills, valleys, mountain ledges and beyond, is this unique large private parcel of land. With endless amounts of firewood to keep you going for an eternity, and 5 large dams, this property is well suited to a family wanting to escape to nature for a weekend, in a lovely bush setting. Also ideal for dirt bikes or just relaxing and enjoying the peace and tranquillity. If you are looking for this sort of getaway in nature, you must visit this property. A great opportunity not to be missed! Call now for an appointment to view. We don't think this one will last long!
