Five Farms Estate is located just 11 km from M1 and is to be accessed by the future Bells Road. It was formed by the close-knit families that used to live here before. There a place for family could be another name for it. There are ample opportunities to socialise and relax within the purposed development. With a provision of a resident's recreation centre, two schools and a shopping centre, one would not be off-beat at any time for a quality living space. The new community will also pay homage to the site's rich farming history. Details: Allotment size: 350 sqm approx.
