Thanks to the clever design that's the hallmark of a Clarendon home, The Cove 29 feels bigger than the small-to-medium size of its footprint. The covered L-shaped porch opens into the long central hallway and to one side of the entry hall, perfectly positioned for quiet and privacy at the front of the home, is the generous master suite with a walk-through robe and dressing room leads to a large bathroom with his and hers vanities, shower and separate WC, with the option to customise the floor plan to add a bath. At the heart of the home are three more bedrooms with built-in robes, a private IT nook and a multi-purpose room – ideal for a home theatre, playroom, teenagers' retreat or home office. Also in this central zone are the family bathroom with bath and shower, plus separate WC, all floored in the matt terrazzo-look tile used in wet areas throughout the home. This house is made for family life but also for entertaining, and the open plan family/kitchen/dining zone – a large, light and airy space spanning the full width of the home and flowing seamlessly to the Alfresco – is an entertainer's dream
