Nestled in St Helena, framed by the beauty of nature, is a community master-planned to elevate your life. A hidden gem in an established locale, St Helena Place combines the quiet charm of family life with connectivity to urban living. Set within a tranquil landscape, St Helena Place offers a rare opportunity to live in a sophisticated neighbourhood surrounded by enriching parklands, wetlands and open spaces. Only 26km from Melbourne's CBD, St Helena encapsulates the idyllic modern dream. All awaiting you in Melbourne's northeast. At St Helena Place, you'll always live within easy reach of enriching nature and everyday essentials. Embrace an active lifestyle with easy access to Diamond Valley Sports Centre and WaterMarc, and delight in the diverse shopping and dining experiences at St Helena Marketplace, Greensborough Plaza and Eltham Village. Framing the abundance of urban amenities are generous green and serene spaces to unwind. Hike the picturesque inclines of nearby Plenty Gorge Park, wander through the curated wetlands at your doorstep, or stroll through the sprawling grounds of Diamond Creek Reserve. See the way quality education is woven into the social fabric of the community. From Greenhills Primary School across the road and nearby North- Eastern Montessori School to St Helena Secondary College, quality schooling lays the foundations for a bright future. World-class tertiary institutions – RMIT and La Trobe University – are also just a short drive from home, priming students for a world of opportunities.
