Inspired by the unique European design forms and industrial warehouse aesthetic, this three-storey home is beautifully appointed and boasts outstanding value in Adelaide's best new address, Tonsley Village. The Urban Garage has been designed to offer alternative modern style with a smart use of space. The result is low-maintenance living without sacrificing lifestyle. Everything has been thought of including: a laundry chute from the top level to the ground level laundry; maximising natural light with an internal void between levels one and two; plus a clever split-level roof line to inject natural light throughout. At ground level, the automated feature garage door opens to a single-car garage, laundry area, guest toilet and adaptable second living space. Perfect for an office, home gym or perhaps somewhere in which to create. Step up to the first level living area that makes clever use of space. With a balcony and ceiling void that maximises views and light within the kitchen, dining and sitting room. Arrive at the top level and really feel at home with two spacious bedrooms (master with private balcony) and a well-appointed bathroom. An Urban Garage presents unbeatable value.
