On offer is the remnants of what was once an idyllic holiday destination. This flood ravaged property is being sold as is, where is. Aside from the demolition and removal of the shack, the property remains untouched since the flood event. This spacious 1474 m2 allotment is within a gated community across the bridge from Blanchetown. The property features a double garage with concrete floor, double carport with the added benefit of an additional garage. The purchasers will need to bring their gloves as the cleanup of the property is yet to commence. The property has been priced to sell.
