Embrace the best of both worlds with this peaceful bush lifestyle acreage located close to incredible coastal attractions and the beautiful and historic port city of Albany. Just 4.4kms down the road is the amazing Albany Wind Farm, coastal Bibbulmun Track walks and popular surfing and fishing spots. Within only about a 17km drive, discover the stunning walk trails and beaches of the Vancouver Peninsular, and more breathtaking scenery and tourist hot spots at Goode Beach. Harbour attractions and downtown Albany are within just 6.3kms of the property. Gently undulating and home to a variety of flora, fauna and birdlife, the lot has power and water available, and is surrounded by other lifestyle properties, so there is ample space between neighbours. It is zoned Rural Residential and offers plenty of scope to design and build a fabulous home to compliment the surrounds. For more detailed information or to arrange a private viewing please contact Joe Trichilo on 0409 370 676.
