Get to know Triabunna: Approximately an hour's drive from Hobart and 40 minutes from Sorell, on part of the Great Eastern Drive. This scenic portside town is the gateway to the wildlife sanctuary of Maria Island National Park. Protected deep in Spring Bay, Triabunna is surrounded by beautiful beaches, coastal reserves and eucalyptus forest. Its big draw, however, is the abundance of fresh seafood. Triabunna's relaxed pace of life is perfect for unwinding and adjusting to the rhythm of island time. The natural beauty of Triabunna is sometimes overlooked as travellers race to catch the Maria Island ferry, which crosses several times daily to Maria Island National Park, but food and nature lovers appreciate sitting on the dock of the bay. The bay is ideal for fishing and sailing, with the largest marina on the East Coast, this is a popular destination for holiday makers, families and retirees.
