Veronas in McCrae

Bold in presence and striking in design, this boutique compilation of eight residences known collectively as 'Veronas in McCrae', immediately impresses with an architectural sense of style, substantial proportions and an exclusive McCrae address.

Offering a spectacular opportunity for couples yearning for an elevated sense of luxury and style, or those just seeking a little something 'extra', this four bedroom abode unveils a sublime fusion of natural complexities and precision-detailing across its entirely landscaped allotment.

With dual entrance through a dedicated mudroom or formal entry, the home builds suspense through a gallery-style hall before opening across a free-flowing floorplan, where spacious living and dining aspects blend with a stone-topped kitchen with butler's pantry, to allure with entertaining delight. Opening across an expansive terrace, entertaining merges indoor/outdoor environments to create a sensational unity across the ground floor. Peripheral vegetation softens the exterior, encouraging a space for green thumbs or those who love to potter outdoors.

Exclusively positioned in the heart of the Peninsula, enjoy a life accented by both the bush and bay, where the rolling hinterland uniquely blends with the coastline to deliver a relaxed, holiday-like feel year 'round. Positioned in close proximity to both Dromana and Rosebud townships, Arthur's Seat National Park, Peninsula Hot Springs, and the many award-winning wineries found dotted across the Peninsula.
