Ideally located halfway between Brisbane and the Gold Coast, Amara delivers the best of all worlds, secluded from the urban buzz yet close to modern amenities. Everything is at your fingertips, with cafes, shopping, iconic beaches and recreation close to home. Almost half of Amara is dedicated to nature, parklands and open space; explore bespoke playgrounds, picnic spots and winding trails. Our homes are expertly designed and complete to the highest specifications. From freestanding baths, stone benchtops, designer appliances and tapware to generous walk-in pantries, professional garden landscaping, ducted air conditioning, and more. Prepare to be wonderfully surprised. Behind the subtle frontage awaits a home that's brimming with features that will make modern living an absolute breeze. A conveniently positioned study sets the scene. Then there's the brilliantly designed laundry offering loads of valuable storage space. The central dining room and living area are flooded with natural light thanks to the private courtyard-style patio with large sliding doors to extend your living areas outdoors seamlessly. The three secondary bedrooms share a resort-inspired bathroom. Finally, your retreat includes its own handsome bedroom, walk-in robe and private ensuite. This is a home that must be seen to be believed.
