The Savannah B is an ever popular design with a feature packed appeal at an affordable price! With a huge open plan kitchen, living and dining leading out to the under roof patio, entertain your family and friends with a kitchen built for a chef!. With 4 bedrooms, the main bedroom set away from the secondary bedrooms and a separate theatre room, there is space for each and every family member. To top off this beautiful home, the street appeal is fantastic with a wide frontage and oversized porch, making our Savannah design a dream home that can be yours! Ellis Developments are an award winning local Townsville builder, taking out the National Master Builders award in November 2023 for our 'Haven' display home. You can be rest assured that the communication process and quality finishes we provide will have you feeling excited about the building process and ecstatic to receive the keys to your investment. Offering the highest level of standard inclusions in the local market, Ellis Developments prides itself on an unwavering commitment to customer service while also delivering the most up-to-date finishings on a truly masterful design.
