Welcome to Newenham Adelaide Hills, a beautiful residential neighbourhood, designed to enrich the health, happiness and wellbeing of everyone who chooses to call it home. This is your opportunity to secure your future in this beautiful pocket of the Adelaide Hills. Being the only project located on the western side of Flaxley Road and only 2km from the town centre, it's an easy 15-minute stroll along the tranquil creekside path, through Keith Stephenson Park, to connect you to the central shopping, dining and business precinct of Mount Barker. This allotment is part of the highly sought-after Farmgate Land Release and is one of the popular "signature" allotments offered at Newenham. The Farmgate land release offers a variety of sizes, street frontages and orientations, and overlooks the land allocated for the future farm. Build your dream home on this torrens titled allotment and be surrounded by nature, just moments from four different tree-lined neighbourhood reserves, including one that will connect you to a future walking trail in and around the farm. You'll also be able to cross the Western Flat Creek to access the linear park, creekside path, playground and will be able to wander up and enjoy the delicious food and coffee at the Kitchen Farm Pantry. The only way you'll get a true sense of how spectacular these blocks really are and how different Newenham is from every other development in Mount Barker is to visit for yourself.
