Broaden your scope as wide as you can in the search for the perfect, supersized, brand-new home with enough space for several families - and you'll arrive at Lot 41 Hasluck Circuit, North Dandalup. Exquisitely developed by concept and design, this brand-new residence positioned within the North Dandalup Estate on a cleared and sprawling 3 acre corner allotment is an extraordinarily rare opportunity by sheer size alone. Why wait years to plan and build, when you can seize this shotgun start and make the magic happen on the outside while relishing the large lot lifestyle from your very own perfectly appointed expansive family home. Bring the kids, the parents, or both! Your dreams of acreage living and stamping your own place on a big patch of rich dirt, with ample accommodations for the whole family (plus some), can be celebrated right here - but don't wait because this chance won't come along again. The Residence: Completed in 2023 by Ventura Homes this grandly proportioned country residence is a lesson in the art of clever design. Filling the full brief of inclusions and amenities there's no mistaking the excellent quality of construction, and you'll find the sheer size of this home is something far more significant - what a pleasure and surprise for many years of enjoyment ahead. Comprising 5 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms spanning a versatile floorplan, there's quite literally 3 master suites complete with ensuite bathrooms and a further 2 generous secondary bedrooms to boot. A dedicated and fully self-contained flat boasting a bedroom, ensuite bathroom, living area and kitchen finds its perfect place in its own wing - with private shopper's entry via the triple garage or the large shared laundry. Delightfully open-planned the central main living area sits beneath 31-course ceilings and houses the family living, dining and well equipped modern kitchen. Extending outdoors for entertaining, the views of the majestic Darling Ranges forms a stunning backdrop from the paved alfresco. Space continues with ample storage for lots more than just vehicles in the 3-car garage, and verandahs to the frontage offer external shade from the western setting sunshine in the summer months. The dedicated media room or games room streams your movies or landscape vistas creating the ideal place to unwind with no neighbours in sight. Featuring fully ducted reverse cycle air-conditioning and thermally conscious furnishings this home will keep your loved ones and pets comfortable year-round, in the comfort of this complete package dwelling.
