Find Your Alternative Life in the Mountains Make the move to the Mountains. The Creevey Valley offers an opportunity to have a life hidden away from the busy of life. Take a chance, make a change and make the move. The location is something special. Creevey Drive is gravel road winding its way up past the Dome to the volcanic Dromedary basin. Its the most alternative lifestyle valley the Agnes Captain Creek area. Oyster Creek winds its way down the valley with roadside water holes or swimming in the hot summer. The site is 200m wide x 800m deep. Rising from the road the property runs up to offer Eastern and Northern views. Featuring natural timbers including ironbark, a host of grass trees and bush rock. There is a driveway upto a cleared landing pad with a carport ready for you to park up and enjoy. Located under 30 minuets from Agnes Water Beaches, schools, medical and shops. We have some of the best fishing, surfing and diving in the world. Best of all we are at the closest access point to the Southern Great Barrier Reef. Power and phone run past the front door and water is rainwater collection. To find out more contact Gordon Christian on 0417 206 500 today.
