Here is a vacant block in the growing Village of Hillgrove NSW .Located just a half hour away from the University town of Armidale , this quaint historic village is gaining momentum.From its early days as a Gold Rush town with a population of approx. 3000 at its peak in 1898, This village perched atop the Metz Gorge and the Waterfall Way, is again on the rise. And why not, with the stunning Gorge scenery and crisp clean elevation on the Great Divide, there simply aren't many small towns like it.<https://www.visitarmidale.com.au/explore/hillgrove>Here is a block that has had many uses along the way and has some good concrete slabs , and concrete block foundations for a small building, all ready to build or relocate your dream home,( subject to Council approval).Directly opposite the Hall and filtered views of the Gorge Rim, a great start or a weekender.Contact Agent for details.
