Comfortable little bush getaway only 45 minutes from metro area. Situated on a 6.1 acre property of beautiful natural bushland it is a great escape for those wanting to get back to nature. Features a small shed located on the corner of the building envelope with a 7,500L water tank and power to the boundary. The shed is nicely fitted out and has fireproof shutters, hot water system, solar panels and is secure with night security lighting on all of the perimeter and fully locked/bolted entry. The bush block has a walking trail on the lower boundary with an array of beautiful wildflowers and orchids and other native fauna to enjoy. It is not fully fenced as it is home to kangaroos and Aussie wildlife including many bird varieties. Only 50 minutes to Perth Airport and 35 minutes to Ellenbrook - it is a lot closer than you may think! Situated 3km from the thriving small town of Bindoon with all necessary amenities.
