Nestled amongst a new subdivision with lovely new homes, this parcel of land is approximately 460m² with very little slope, providing a perfect building site for your dream home. This subdivision has been conveniently developed close to the lovely cafes, bakeries and eateries at central Augusta Road in Lenah Valley and a very short commute to Hobart's CBD. If you love your puppy companions, the John Turnbull Dog Park is a short stroll away, and there are plenty of local schools to choose from in the area, making it a family friendly location, also close to public transport.
